CALL FOR PAPERS

About the Event:

The paper presentation competition organised by PANGAEA, the 2nd Annual Festival of the School of Habitat Studies, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai aims at encouraging students to develop scholarly work in the field of regulation, climate change, water policy and urban policy. The event establishes a platform for critically analyzing the existing trends and exploring present realities in the above mentioned fields. The competition also provides an opportunity for the participants to interact with the experts in the relevant field and evolve ideas thus contributing to the discipline.

Papers are invited on the following themes:

1. Developments in the Field of Regulation - Indian Context
2. Societal Impacts of Climate Change
3. Interlinking of Indian Rivers
4. Smart Cities

Eligibility:
Participant must be enrolled as a student (including M.Phil and PHD scholars) at a university

Submission Guidelines:

Abstract/Paper are invited to be sent to pangaea.tiss@gmail.com by January 10, 2015

Rules and Regulations:

1. Abstract for the paper must not exceed 200 words
2. Paper should not exceed a word limit of 5000 words
3. The participant may present individually or in a team not exceeding three members
4. Selected papers would be presented before the jury followed by a discussion and expert interaction

Date of event:

Presentation of selected papers will be held on January 29, 2015

Award:

The best paper would be awarded a cash prize of Rs.10,000/-

Co-ordinators:
Azhagu Meena
+918655069232.
azhagu.meena2014@tiss.edu

Dipesh Suvarna
+91-9004469427
suvarnadipesh@gmail.com

Tata Institute of Social Sciences
V N Purav Marg, Mumbai, Maharashtra 400088