Doctoral Fellowship Announcement in social and behavioural research with particular focus on HIV, gender, vulnerability, and sexuality related themes

ONE Fellowship for a Ph.D scholar currently enrolled at TISS, in full time or part time doctoral research program and interested in working for doctoral work in the broad and related themes of HIV, gender, vulnerability, vulnerable populations, and sexuality. The Fellowship is open to a scholar under Prof. Shalini Bharat’s guidance in the Center for Health & Social Sciences, School of Health Systems Studies.

The Fellowship amount of Rs. 16,000/-month is available for a period of three years and renewed each year based on annual performance appraisal of the fellowship holder.

Application, on plain paper, in sealed envelope must reach the School of Health Systems Secretariat (with the name of the undersigned clearly mentioned on the envelope), by October 10, 2013.

Applications must be supported by necessary documents such as, letter of admission to TISS doctoral program and a one page concept note on the chosen topic for doctoral work.

Shalini Bharat
Professor
Center for Health & Social Sciences
School of Health Systems Studies