Since 2009, the Special Police Unit for Women & Children (SPUWAC) of the Delhi Police, has had a Counselling Unit under the project 'Violence Free Home: every woman’s right'. This project is operated in collaboration with the National Commission for Women, with technical support of Resource Centre for Interventions on Violence Against Women, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (Mumbai). The social workers at the counselling unit of the SPUWAC provide psycho-social and legal services to women & children survivors of violence. Expansion of the counselling units' work is planned at present, under which the following vacancies are advertised:

Social Worker-cum-Counsellor (2)

- First preference: Masters degree in Social Work from a recognised university;
- Second preference: Masters in Applied Psychology/Counselling/Psychology or Bachelors degree in Social Work with at least 3 years’ full-time work experience on women's rights and issues;
- Must demonstrate an inclination to work with women facing violence in/with the Police Department & Criminal Justice System;
- Must demonstrate skills of reporting, documentation, work with individuals and systems;
- Should be fluent in both Hindi & English (reading, writing & speaking);

Nature of employment: Contractual with consolidated monthly salary

Location: Once appointed, the candidate must reside in Delhi, and will be deputed in Police Station in any district of Delhi

Preference will be given to: (a) Candidates with experience of work on VAW issues, and (b) women candidates having relevant qualifications & experience.

Last day for receipt of applications is the 1st of March, 2015, and Curriculum vitae/resumes - containing phone and e-mail contact details - must be sent vide e-mail to delhispecialcellnp@gmail.com.