Call for Abstracts

International Conference: Rethinking Cities in the Global South: Urban Violence, Social Inequality and Spatial Justice, January 20th to 22nd 2016, TISS Mumbai

Abstract Submission Deadline: July 31st 2015

The Centre for Urban Policy and Governance at the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai along with Instituto de Pesquisa e Planejamento Urbano e Regional, Rio and University of KwaZulu Natal, Durban is organizing an International Conference “Rethinking Cities in the Global South: Urban Violence, Social Inequality and Spatial Justice” from the 20th to 22nd January 2016 in Mumbai. The conference will debate critically upon what constitutes the urban in the global south and what conditions, coalitions, collaborations make possible a more socially equitable and spatially just city. The idea is to build a south-south network of urban researchers, practitioners, academics, policy makers and activists. Details about the concept are attached in the Concept Note.

We invite abstracts for paper presentations. The last date for abstract submission is July 31st 2015. For more information about the conference, please write in to cupg.tiss@gmail.com.