NIRANTAR - a space for lifelong learning

invites you to a Workshop on

“Social Security for the Elderly”

by

Dr. Uma Jadhav

Date: 29th July (Monday) 2015
Time: 3.30 pm to 5.30 pm
Venue: NC-1 Classroom,
M. S Gore building, Ground Floor,
Naoroji Campus (New Campus)
Deonar Farm Road
Tata Institute of Social Sciences
Deonar-400088
About the Workshop: The purpose of the workshop is to give an overview of social security schemes for the elderly with specific reference to India in general and in the State of Maharashtra in particular. It will deliberate on several allied issues beset with elderly population…

- Demographic transition effect on growing elderly cohort-Global and Indian scenario of the elderly
- Elderly labour force participation and types of activities in Indian economy
- Living arrangement of men and women elderly aged 60 years and above in India
- Three pillars for the support of elderly
- Complex web of govt. schemes with specific reference to the State of Maharashtra
- Caring for the elderly in a changing world—Role of different stakeholders.
- A way forward

Brief Profile of the Facilitator: Dr. Uma Jadhav, is a professional Medico-Social Worker in a tertiary hospital of Mumbai since last 18 years. She did Masters in Social Work and LL.B from University of Mumbai and has doctoral degree from School of Health Systems Studies of TISS. She is attached with Geriatric Unit of tertiary hospital of Mumbai. She has papers published in national and international journal of a repute. Her prime interest is in the area of public health policy and public health management.

For Registration please contact:
Ms. Veena Shinde / Mr. Ritesh
Room No:204, 2nd Floor
Centre for Lifelong Learning
Extn: 022-25525682
Email ID: veena.shinde@tiss.edu

Registration Charges Rs. 300/- per person. Fee waived for faculty and current students of TISS [Masters, Doctoral, Diploma, Certificate students]

Prior confirmation required as number of seats are limited